

Donation & Transplantation Quiz

1. Each day, on average, 78 people receive an organ transplant. True False
2. Each day, on average, 19 people die waiting for a transplant. True False
3. Donated organs are removed in a surgical procedure, and the donor may still have an open-casket funeral. True False
4. Donors can be any age. True False
5. The medical team treating the potential donor is completely separate from the medical team that performs the transplant. True False
6. An organ recovery team is not notified until all life-saving efforts have failed and the donor is declared brain dead. True False
7. Organ transplant success rates are as high as 95 percent. True False
8. Most of the world's religions support organ donation. True False
9. One donor may help more than 50 people in need. True False
10. Donating my organs will cost my family money. True False
11. Organs are often given to patients based on wealth, race, age and gender, rather than medical need. True False
12. Medical professionals recover organs with respect for the body. True False
13. I cannot donate my organs if I have a history of medical illness. True False
14. Doctors will do all they can to save my life whether or not I have communicated my decision about donation True False
15. If I agree to become an organ donor, I must donate all my organs True False
16. A person can recover from brain death. True False

Want to learn more about the organ donation and transplantation?

Visit www.AMASavesLives.com

Donation & Transplantation Quiz

1. Each day, on average, 78 people receive an organ transplant. TRUE False
2. Each day, on average, 19 people die waiting for a transplant. TRUE False
3. Donated organs are removed in a surgical procedure, and the donor may still have an open-casket funeral. TRUE False
4. Donors can be any age. TRUE False
5. The medical team treating the potential donor is completely separate from the medical team that performs the transplant. TRUE False
6. An organ recovery team is not notified until all life-saving efforts have failed and the donor is declared brain dead. TRUE False
7. Organ transplant success rates are as high as 95 percent. TRUE False
8. Most of the world's religions support organ donation. TRUE False
9. One donor may help more than 50 people in need. TRUE False
10. Donating my organs will cost my family money. True FALSE
11. Organs are often given to patients based on wealth, race, age and gender, rather than medical need. True FALSE
12. Medical professionals recover organs with respect for the body. TRUE False
13. I cannot donate my organs if I have a history of medical illness. True FALSE
14. Doctors will do all they can to save my life whether or not I have communicated my decision about donation TRUE False
15. If I agree to become an organ donor, I must donate all my organs True FALSE
16. A person can recover from brain death. True FALSE

Want to learn more about the organ donation and transplantation?

Visit www.AMASavesLives.com